

Things We have learned along the Road about Life

- ▶ Never teach a pig to sing. It is a waste of your time and it annoys the pig.
- ▶ Never get into a pissing contest with a skunk. You will both come up smelling.
- ▶ The only judge that counts is the one facing you in the mirror each morning.
- ▶ People don't care how much you know until they know how much you care.

Things We have learned along the Road about Life

- ▶ If we keep doing what we have been doing we will continue to get what we have been getting.
- ▶ If we don't know where we are going, every road will get us there.
- ▶ It's not what we say we are going to do that counts but what we have done that counts.
- ▶ The best way we can predict the future is to help create it.

Things We have learned along the Road about Life

- ▶ We see what we look for. Some of us see the glass half full while some of us see it half empty.
- ▶ Change is mandatory, growth is optional.
- ▶ If every problem is a nail then every solution is a hammer.
- ▶ If we make up their mind we can't do something, we are absolutely right.
